

When Alina's son, Fin, traces his long-absent birthfather, it's the catalyst for decades of secrets to implode in Alina's neatly ordered life.

With the sudden appearance of Rory, and the ever-present pull of a very different life in Bangladesh, she's left reeling.

Three relationships, all of them built on half-truths. All Alina can truly be sure of, is that you can choose your family, you just can't choose who they will turn out to be.

'A jewel... I never read a novel twice. This one I will.'
CLO CAREY

'A lovely, compelling read about love, family, and finding yourself. I took Alina to my heart.'
BECKY HUNTER

'Poignant and filled with dry humour, a hugely satisfying read.'
ELISSA SOAVE

ISBN 9781915643704

9 781915 643704

FICTION £9.99

Cover design by whittakerbookdesign.com
Images: Shutterstock

ANNE HAMILTON THE ALMOST TRUTH

ANNE HAMILTON

'A gripping and brilliantly written novel from a huge new talent.' SOPHIE HANNAH

THE ALMOST TRUTH

